Subject: Agreement for the Recording of a Technical Presentation

Thank you for agreeing to present a technical presentation to the Geophysical Society of Houston (GSH). As all interested parties may not attend all live presentations, the GSH would like permission to record (audio and video) your presentation and to make that recording available for online viewing at a later date. The recording will only be made available in a streaming format and no download or further distribution of the recording will be allowed. For clarity, the intellectual property remains the property of the presenter and can be used in any fashion they see fit. The digital recording of the webinar will be the property of the GSH and, except as provided herein, will not be distributed or sold to any third party. The GSH retains the rights to use the recordings to offset GSH expenses.
